

September 12 (Thursday)

-In class we learned about git and GitHub, making repository, and branches ,and cloning the git. As well as different c functions and their use.

September 14-15 (weekend)

Watched all videos that was posted in course content as well as did other class work and assignments as well.

September 16(Monday)

Me and melvince had meeting and decided to start to work on assignment . melvince had problem with conio.h so I decided to work on conio.h and he agreed to work on scanf functions. And

September 17 (Tuesday)

Continued to work on assignment 2 project with melvince over the phone and planned our game format for assignment.

September18 (Wednesday)

Finalized the assignment work and code.as well as power point presentation theme and script as well. And finished all remaining work regarding presentation next day .

Melvice did code for scanf as well as research and slide show.

I did conio.h code and slide show.

GitHub repository link--https://github.com/pn9623/CSE_Project.git